CHICAGO COIN CLUB

The Chicago Coin Club Bulletin was originally issued Quarterly and was funded from the Auction Accounts Profits.

The late Glenn Ostrander, president of C.C.C. in 1949-1950, started the Chicago Coin Club Chatter during his presidency, and with the inception of the Chatter, the Bulletin became periodic and perhaps spasmodic.

This photo was taken in the late 40's at an Annual Banquet in the Lincoln Room, the Club's then meeting place in the LaSalle Hotel. Some of the club's stalwarts are easily recognizable even though they were then much younger!

From 1943, the Bulletin became almost an annual, skipping 1945 and 1946, 1948, 1954 and 1956. Then there was a big gap from the 1957 issue to 1969 the 50th Anniversary issue, although the 500th Meeting Souvenir Booklet issued September 14, 1960, could be considered a "Bulletin" in size, format and content.

Now once again, the Bulletin appears during the Bi-Centennial year and hopefully it will continue.

The Chicago Coin Club's history was well documented in the Golden Anniversary issue, the 1969 Bulletin so in this edition only a few highlights will be mentioned. The club has had numismatic giants as members over the years, to name and sketch their careers would be far beyond the scope of this publication. Many of them achieved national and international numismatic recognition, but we must not forget those who gave their devotion primarily to the Chicago Coin Club.

The first meeting of the Chicago Coin Club was held on February 14, 1919 and the organization of the club was an outgrowth of A.N.A. Branch No. 1. As an A.N.A. Branch membership was restricted hence the re-organization to include both member and non-A.N.A. members.

On January 19, 1938 the club was incorporated in the State of Illinois as a non-profit organization.

In the Spring of 1939 the club acted as host for the organizational meeting of the Central States Numismatic Society. On November 1, 1941 the club became Life Member No. 60 of the American Numismatic Association.

In 1968 the U.S. Treasury Department granted the club tax-exempt status.

At the 600th meeting (50th Anniversary) Mr. and Mrs. Richard McP. Cabeen made a $5000.00 cash gift to the club to aid the club's publications and other projects.

This Bulletin again lists all who are or have been members of the C.C.C. Enough Bulletins will be printed to provide new members a copy, so that future issues of the Bulletin need not be all encompassing.

Many times we have wondered which person has been a member of the club for the longest period. They are listed below in the order in which they joined, even though some of them have moved to other climes and are now non-resident, but still members.

In 1968 the Club officers approved the Richard McP. Cabeen award to be given annually to stimulate interest in regular meeting exhibits. At each meeting three members evaluate the exhibits on a point basis, considering the exhibits and talks about them. Awards go to the members accumulating the highest number of points during the calendar year.

CLUB MEDALS AND TOKENS

The Chicago Coin Club and its predecessors have issued a long list of medals and tokens. They were all illustrated and described in the 1969 issue. A few are being reproduced in this edition.

Awards Medals

At the 1955 Annual Banquet, the first medals were awarded: silver medal to past presidents; silver medals of merit; bronze medal for exhibits at specific meetings, and bronze literary medal. In 1968 the Richard McP. Cabeen annual exhibit award in plaque form was inaugurated.

Anniversary Medals

Medals or tokens were struck for the 100th, 400th, 500th and 600th meetings and for the 25th and 50th anniversaries.

The 25th anniversary of the Club was celebrated in 1944 with Paul Pennington as president. The Club issued a beautiful medal in silver with a bust of Lincoln on the obverse. It was designed by A. Smith of Cincinnati, Ohio.

400th Meeting

The 400th meeting occurred during the presidency of Harry X Boosel and he was instrumental in preparing Mexican one peso coins counterstamped the C.C.C. emblem and meeting inscriptions.

500th Meeting

An unusual medal, designed by member James A. Friberg, was struck in gold, silver and bronze of barrel contour, size 72x52 mm. The obverse central panel shows the world with expanding comet-like lines originating at Chicago with a jet-liner and the Chicago Water Tower in top panel and a view along Chicago river in lower panel. Silver medals were sold at $10.00 each, bronze at $5.00 each, and a set of three anodized aluminum at $7.50.

600th Meeting

For the 600th meeting (50th Anniversary) both a medal and a token were struck. The goldine token was made available to every member. An artistic 2¼" 50th Anniversary Medal was sculptured by Trygve A. Rovelstand, Elgin artist. It was sold by advance subscription to members only; 113 in silver and 182 in bronze. They were struck by Medallic Art Company.
